

PART ONE

PLAY FILM 1

Summary

The film we just watched described the anti-Semitism and violence that Jews in Europe experienced in the 1800's. Their lives were pretty restricted by unjust laws and general discrimination – including in employment and education.

Discussion

- If you had to deal with these same restrictions and discrimination, how would your life be different than it is now? What would you do, and how would you react?
- What if there were pogroms—would you fight, leave or become less Jewish?
- Do any of these conditions exist for Jews in the world today?
